2014 Motor Vehicle Commission Legislative Update

The Tennessee General Assembly has recently made changes to statutes which may impact you as a holder of a license with the Tennessee Motor Vehicle Commission. These new changes as set out in the following Public Chapters specifically amend the Tennessee Code Annotated as follows:

Public Chapter 978 expands the Tennessee Motor Vehicle Commission from sixteen (16) to seventeen (17) members. This new member must be an independent motor vehicle dealer whose principal inventory is used motor vehicles. The Act further sets out the qualifications of the new member. This Act took effect April 16, 2014. A copy of the new law is available for review on the website of the Tennessee General Assembly here: <http://www.tn.gov/sos/acts/108/pub/pc0978.pdf>.

Public Chapter 952 clarifies who constitutes an eligible employee for the purposes of leasing motor vehicles to employees by a motor vehicle producer. This Act takes effect July 1, 2014. A copy of the new law is available for review on the website of the Tennessee General Assembly here: <http://www.tn.gov/sos/acts/108/pub/pc0952.pdf>.

Public Chapter No. 815, amends Title 40, Chapter 29, relative to restoration of citizenship. This Act allows certain persons beginning on January 1, 2015, who have had their rights of citizenship restored to petition the court for a certificate of employability. If a person obtains such a certificate, an agency may not deny the issuance, restoration or renewal of an occupational license solely on the person's past record of criminal activity but, instead, must consider each such applicant on a case-by-case basis. The certificate of employability preempts any existing rule that authorizes or requires the denial or refusal to issue, restore or renew a license based on the person's past record of criminal history; however, any agency may promulgate new rules which allow or require such a denial or refusal to issue, restore or renew a license notwithstanding the certificate based on the time elapsed since the criminal offense or the nature of the offense having a direct bearing on the fitness or ability to perform any duty or responsibility necessarily related to the sought license. Further, employers that hire individuals holding a certificate of employability may be provided with defenses to certain civil actions based on such hiring. This law became effective on April 28, 2014. Public Chapter No. 881, amends Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 62-76-201 and 202, and Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 68-1-129 and 130, relative to each board and commission created under Title 62. This Act requires each board and commission in consultation with the division of Regulatory Boards develop a plan to create an apprentice program for use by such board or commission. The details of the plan shall include specific items set out in the Public Chapter and shall be submitted to the speaker of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the government operations committees of the senate and the house of representatives, the commissioner of commerce and insurance, the commissioner of health and the commissioner of labor and workforce development on or before December 31, 2014. If any board or commission has statutorily created apprenticeship programs or previously had such programs, it shall submit a similar report detailing information about such programs as set out in the Public Chapter. This law became effective on May 1, 2014. A copy of the new law is available for review on the website of the Tennessee General Assembly here:<http://state.tn.us/sos/acts/108/pub/pc0881.pdf>.
